

RULES FOR DRUM MAJOR COMPETITION

1. Order of Presentation:

Competitors will perform in the order determined by the Games Sponsor. The first to enter will be the last to perform. However, the Games Sponsor has the right to adjust any preassigned times in order to eliminate large gaps in the contest due to scratches or disqualifications.

It is the responsibility of Drum Major competitors to arrive on time, to check in with the appropriate Games Official and to check periodically on the starting time of his or her contest. Competitors not on hand when called will forfeit entry in that event. Every effort will be made to notify individuals of changes in the times. As they occur, changes will be posted in a central location.

2. Inspection: The Drum Major inspections will occur at 10:00AM near the entrance on grass. The March portion of the Drum Major will occur on the grand stand field from 1:00PM to 2:00PM.

There must be at least one more competitor than the number of prizes awarded unless the judge thinks the prize is warranted. Results and prizes will be handed out at Massed Bands at the end of the day.

3. There must be at least one more competitor than the number of prizes awarded unless the judge thinks the prize is warranted. Results and prizes will be handed out at Massed Bands at the end of the day.

4. Drum Major Marches will be accompanied by the host band with 6/8 time signatures.

A complete set of WUSPBA rules will be available at the place of registration the day of competition.

Contest will be organized under the WUSPBA Sanctioning Process.

Your Games Pass and other information will be sent to you approximately two (2) weeks prior to the Games weekend. If you are affiliated with a participating band, no pass will be sent to the band for you unless you register in the last week or so after band tickets have been sent out.
